First Choice for Devon & Cornwall's
Police & Crime Commissioner on 5 May 2016

Conservatives

Dear Resident

This role will require tackling crime from many angles not just from a police perspective.

Understanding the needs and challenges of the rural, urban and coastal communities within Devon and Cornwall is vital. This will require strategic thinking and the ability to form strong partnerships and alliances. I have an excellent track record of delivering through strategic partnerships.

The Police budget will now not be cut for four years but there is no room for complacency. First and foremost we need to protect the safety of the people of Devon and Cornwall.
